

17 Molesworth Street COBURG VIC

3 1 2

"Ravenscraig? (c1888), a house with history but without heritage overlay, has been sympathetically renovated to respect its former glory. Birthplace of prominent businessman and notable politician, Arthur Bruce Pie.

The charming block-fronted facade, complete with lace-trimmed verandah, is enhanced by a low-maintenance rose and lavender trimmed, picket-fence front garden.

The house showcases a classic Victorian configuration of 5 principal rooms with central corridor leading to the beautifully renovated heart of the home.

There are 3 spacious bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, providing ample storage.

The large lounge provides space for formal entertaining, or relaxing with the family and friends.

The new kitchen features quality appliances, 900mm Miele
