

17 Molesworth Street COBURG VIC

3 1 2

"Ravenscraig? (c1888), a house with history but without heritage overlay, has been sympathetically renovated to respect its former glory. Birthplace of prominent businessman and notable politician, Arthur Bruce Pie.

The charming block-fronted facade, complete with lace-trimmed verandah, is enhanced by a low-maintenance rose and lavender trimmed, picket-fence front garden.

The house showcases a classic Victorian configuration of 5 principal rooms with central corridor leading to the beautifully renovated heart of the home.

There are 3 spacious bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, providing ample storage.

The large lounge provides space for formal entertaining, or relaxing with the family and friends.

The new kitchen features quality appliances, 900mm Miele gas cooktop, electric oven and range hood, Bosch dishwasher, family size fridge space and quartz stone

Price : $ 1,168,000
